Allure of the Seas®

Naples, Italy

Friday, October 23, 2015

FROM ANCIENT ARTIFACTS TO THE AMALFI COAST, NAPLES IS A TREASURE TROVE.

Many would argue that pizza was Naples' greatest contribution to mankind. You might even agree after sinking your teeth into a slice of Margherita. But this cultural epicenter has shared countless extraordinary works with the rest of the world. At the Treasury of Saint Gennaro, you'll find an impressive collection of ancient documents, jewels, paintings and more. And the Naples National Archaeological Museum holds artifacts from the Roman Empire and Pompeii. This town is chock-full of museums so take your pick and, by all means, have some pizza too. From Naples, visit the world-famous excavation of Pompeii at the base of Mt. Vesuvius. Once a thriving empire, it was left in ashes after a volcanic eruption in 79 AD. Also worth seeing is Italy's stunning Amalfi Coast, a journey that's as famous as its seaside destinations. Sorrento is a sophisticated summer resort town. Pretty Positano, a haven for artsy types. The maritime village of Amalfi is brimming with history. And the Isle of Capri is perhaps the gem of them all, with sweeping vistas, lively cafés and blooming gardens.
